Dear Mr Shorten

I would like to ask you some questions in relation to the rape allegations made against you that are currently being investigated by the Victorian Police.

1. Why have you not made a public statement in relation to the rape allegations?
2. If and when do you intend on making a public statement?
3. Do you intend on addressing parliament in relation to the allegations? (I do note that there were calls for Craig Thomson to address parliament when allegations were initially made against him)
4. Do you know the alleged rape victim?
5. In or about 1985/86 did you and two others travel to Wodonga to meet with the alleged victim?
6. In or about 1985/86 did you ever attend any young Labor camps near Geelong?
7. Have you ever had a relationship with the alleged victim?
8. Have you ever had sex with the alleged victim?

Regards

Shane Dowling
