Subject: Scouts Australia cover-up? Media request - Shane Dowling

Dear Mr Williams, Mr Jones and Mr Tomkins

I am a journalist and have been trying to get some questions answered by Scouts Australia for almost 2 weeks as per the below emails. For some reason I am clearly being stonewalled.

It relates to Judge Garry Neilson and his possible involvement with the Scouts. Judge Neilson is currently under investigation regarding some scandalous comments that he made regarding incest and paedophilia. The questions that I have previously asked are:

I have specific information that Garry Neilson went on Boy Scout jamborees at least in the period of 1985 to 1987 and possibly for other periods. Can you confirm?

Can you also confirm the details of Garry Neilson's involvement with the Boy Scouts. Has he left and what was his reason for leaving the Boy Scouts if he did leave?

Can you please have these questions answered ASAP as I have a deadline and it is obviously not a good look if the questions are not answered especially with the Royal Commission into Child Sexual abuse cover-ups.

Dear Alison

As discussed on the phone today I contacted the Scouts Monday last week and was advised to contact the NSW Branch. I have made numerous attempts to contact Rosalie and have not had a response as per the below email. While I can appreciate the subject matter is not nice there is a royal commission afoot because of institutions covering up child sex abuse. If you could get a formal response to my questions it would be greatly appreciated.

Hi Rosalie

I am journalist and publish a judicial corruption website. It is my understanding that Judge Garry Neilson has been involved with the Boy Scouts going back as far as 1980's. This is the Judge Garry Neilson who has been in the headlines of most media the last few days given his comments regarding incest and paedophilia.

I have specific information that Garry Neilson went on Boy Scout jamborees at least in the period of 1985 to 1987 and possibly for other periods. Can you confirm?

Can you also confirm the details of Garry Neilson's involvement with the Boy Scouts. Has he left and what was his reason for leaving the Boy Scouts if he did leave?

Regards
