Subject: Shane Dowling defamation matters

Dear Justice Hoeben

I sent an email to Justice Lucy McCallum in relation to 2 defamation matters and said to her "I am writing to request that the Capilano Honey v Shane Dowling (2016/299522) and the Jane Doe v Shane Dowling (2016/383575) matters be set down ASAP for urgent directions given the Court of Appeal judgment in Capilano Honey v Shane Dowling." As per the below email (6/2/19) Justice McCallum's Associate responded and said that Justice McCallum no longer looks after the defamation list and that I needed to contact you.

I found this odd as I did 4 months jail which expired on the 21/12/18 for contempt of court for calling you (Justice Hoeben) a paedophile and registrar Christopher Bradford a suspected paedophile and known bribe taker in court on the 3/2/17 and for breaching 2 suppression orders that the court issued to try to cover-up the reasons of why I was in jail.

Justice McCallum and her associate Nicole Sinclair are well aware of this and they even directed the jail to have me on video-link on Friday the 7th of September 2018 for the Capilano Honey matter. Why they would tell me to contact you is disturbing as they could have dealt with my request easily. Be that as it may I hereby request that you have the 2 previously mentioned matters set down for directions.

Obviously the matters should not be dealt with by you and should have an interstate judge deal with the matters. I have also filed a application for Special Leave to Appeal in the High Court of Australia for the contempt matter where your conduct and credibility will be questioned. Just for the record I deny calling you a paedophile in court for which I was found in contempt but admit calling you a paedophile in an email I sent to the court and an article I published in September 2016 which are allegations you have never refuted even though you have had the opportunity to do so on many occasions.

Regards

Shane Dowling

Dear Mr Dowling

Justice McCallum is no longer the Defamation list judge. Please direct any enquiries to the chambers of the Chief Judge at Common Law, Justice Hoeben.
