 The situation as it stands is untenable. I cannot see that the Minister in question has any choice. It might hold for a day or two but no more than that, and while the MSM is holding back on naming him, the rest are not.

We now know why #4corners had to dance around the AG's antics, hinting at something bigger, but had to make do with a watered-down story about the Bonk Ban. #auspol #CabinetRapist #ChristianPorter

I just watched this #4Corners program. I now know more about the #CabinetRapist than I needed to. #ChristianPorter & #scottymustgo I am stunned & furious. If you haven't watched it yet, please do.

I thought 4corners focusing on uni and debating days was a bit strange....unrelated, but sydney hosted world university debating championship in 1988

He was the first "sleaze" I thought of when the "alleged" rape was publicized. ABC's Four Corners program on Porter and that other questionable elitist Tudge alerted me to think that I wondered why 4 Corners bothered going into Porter's sleazy past in such detail. Now, it's starting to make sense.

This is from @PaulFletcherMP's ABC complaint on the 4 Corners 'Canberra Bubble' program. Did The Liberal Party

This is the #4corners episode that Paul Fletcher tried to kill.
Everyone needs to watch it especially now. Stars Christian Porter and Allan Tudge.

Reading between the lines if it's Christian Porter he is too powerful to sideline. He was gunning for Prime Minister, and wouldn't let the affair that made his wife divorce him last year resign, he actually flat out lied about it even though many witnesses had seen him. #4Corners

The program seemed to be mainly about something that wasn't actually ever mentioned. That's why (we know now) it had a strange lop-sided feel to it.
